To the Readers and Friends HOT AIR FURNACES.

OLD OHIO STATESMAN.

We have this day considerably enlarged THE DAILY ONTO STATESHAM, and now print it on plain and handsome new type, and clear white paper.

In politics, THE OHIO STATESHAM is, in War as in Peace, for the Country, for the Constitution, and for a Union of equal States, with equal privileges, and with equal and exact justice to all its citizens. We are for the old Flag, with not a Star or Stripe crased, and the old Union as far as it is possible to restore it, and for the existing Constitution, in its spirit, letter and purpose.

and for the existing Constitution, in its spirit, letter and purpose.

Upon the coming events of the year, rest the hopes of the People and Government. We are in the midst of a bloody and protracted civil war. Its duration and close depend upon a wiser, truer and more patrictic policy than we have seen during the present Administration. We owe it to the memory of our fathers, and to the hopes of our children, to the future of our country, and to the best interests of mankind, to change a policy which is drifting as farther and father from the landmarks of our patrictic sires.

The Stateman will do all it can for those purposes, and hence, the publishers invite support and encouragement from all those who, while wishing for a good Newspaper, also wish to have a sound Constitutional journal.

We publish a paper in which we seek to give the TRUTH. Our Commercial Reports, our Markets, our Political and General News, are carefully freed from sensation character, and we seek to make The Stateman frustworthy in every particular.

For News, for Instruction, for Good Morals, for Sound Political Sentiments, for a Steady Defense of American Institutions, Take, Read, and help to Circulate The Ohio Stateman.

PETER MARTIN'S Patent Improved llot Air Farnaces,

For Public and Private Use.

For Wood or Coal.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is called to the above Furnaces, as they combine ventilating with heating qualities.

The inventor has, after years of experiments, succeeded in perfecting what he claims to be the best Furnace now in use. Among its many advantages over the ordinary Furnaces, are:

The small amount of fuel required to keep it in operation. The small amount of fuel required to keep it in operation.

Keeping the rooms constantly supplied with pure, fresh air, drawn from Nature's inexhaustible stock out of doors.

Large Air Chambers, avoiding the confinement of heat in heated walls and hot metal chambers. Improved Water Chambers, which keep up a steady supply of moisture, which overcomes the great objection to ordinary Hot Air Furnaces.

The castings are heavy, and strongly bolted together, guaranteeing durability under any degree of heat.

Particular attention is called to the SELF-REGU-

CINGINNATI, March 17, 1863.

Mr. P. Martin, of this city, has constructed a "Hot Air Furnace" in the Second Reformed Church (corner Findlay and Baymiller streets), which has thus far given entire satisfaction. For efficiency in warming, purity of air, and economy of fuel, we can speak of it in most favorable terms. Its permanence and durability also seem to promise well. The plan of draught and ventillation is good.

From our experience, we can recommend Mr. Martin as an adept in the art of warming buildings, and as quite competent to give satisfaction in the construction of Furnaces wherever practicable.

The Movements on Richmond - Dispatch from General Lee-The Enemy Reported to be Falling Back on the South Side-The Cavalry Raid

(From The Richmond Dispatch, May 12.]
The city was full of excitement yesterday. As the local forces were out, and the printers were called "to the front," we are una-ble to give a very full account of affairs as they transpired; but we think that all the important intelligence relative to the move-ment on Richmond is given below:

FROM GENERAL LEE-THE ENEMY AGAIN RE-PULSED. The following gratifying intelligence from Gen. Lee was received at the War De-

SPOTTSYLVANIA COURT HOUSE, } VIA GUINEY'S, MAY 11, 1864.

The Hon. Secretary of War: Gen. Grant's army is intrenched near this place, on both sides of the Brock road. Frequent skirmishing occurred yesterday and to-day, each army endeavoring to discover the position of the other. To-day the ene-my shelled our lines and made several assaults with infantry against different points, particularly on our left, held by General R. H. Anderson. The last, which occurred after sunset, was the most obstinate; some of the enemy leaping over the breastworks. They were easily repulsed, except in front of Gen. Doles' brigade, where they drove our men from their position, and from a fourgun battery there posted. The men were soon rallied, and by dark our line was reestablished and the battery recovered.

A large body of the enemy moved around our left on the evening of the 9th, and took possession of the road about midway between Shady Grove Church and the Court House. Gen. Early, with a part of Hill's corps, drove them back this evening, taking one gun and a few prisoners.

Thanks to a merciful Providence, our casualties have been small.

Among the wounded are Brigadier-Gens. Hayes and H. H. Walker. The following private dispatch, from Major Slaughter, of Fredericksburg, was received yesterday. It refers to the repulse GUINEY'S, May 11, 1864. Fredericksburg. I hear nothing but the statement that citizens have been arrested as hostages for prisoners captured there on Sunday.

mentioned in Gen. Lee's telegram:

There was severe fighting yesterday near Spottsylvania Court House. The Yankees, drunk with liquor, attacked our entire intrenchments and were repulsed with terrible slaughter. Musketry firing was heard to-day in the same direction. The news is generally fa-

Some anxiety was felt in the public mind as to the supplies of Gen. Lee's army, which may be removed by the fact that all the railroad damage done by the raiders has been repaired, and Gen. Lee's line of communication is intact.

FALLEN BACK TO BERMUDA HUNDREDS-THEY DISAPPEAR FROM DREWRY'S BLUFF AND PORT WALTHALL. It would seem that the enemy have changed their plan of operations on the south side of the river. The following dispatch from Gen. Ransom was the first intimation of the change: DREWRY'S BLUFF, May 11, 1864. The enemy fell back last night from their position yesterday toward James river, apparently in some haste. Their pickets have appeared in large numbers on James river, in the vicinity of Howlett's and Dutch Gap, on the south side. R. RANSOM, Jr. Shortly after the reception of this intelli-gence it was rumored that the enemy were crossing to this side of the river, but no movement of this character had occurred up to yesterday afternoon, when this dis-patch was received by Gen. Bragg:

CHAFFIN'S FARM, May 11, 1864. The enemy's pickets do not extend far this side of Howitt's house. They are not opposite Cox's wharf, as reported this morning, and there are no signs of crossing to

Yesterday evening there were no Yankees at Port Walthall, nor along the line of the railroad or turnpike from Petersburg to this Last night an official dispatch from the commanding officer at Petersburg announced the fact that the enemy had fallen back to the river (Bermuda Hundreds) and were intrenebing.

Intelligence through our signal corps states that the enemy were cutting down trees and attempting to block up the river with them, upon the apprehension, probably, that the iron-clads which they say are at Richmond would go down the river. The movement on the south side, as at first projected, is thus abandoned. The enemy have fairly retreated, whether with the purpose of reinforcing Grant or not is not known. If the Confederate government really had any iron-clads at Richmond now they would be useful. THE SPEAR RAID IN REAR OF PETERSBURG-The noted Yankee marauder, Spears, had an exceedingly rough time of it after burning the railroad bridge at Stony creek. He evidently was impressed with the idea, after the comparatively easy job he had of it there, that he would have nothing to do but to go on with his vandal operations on the road at his leisure and pleasure. Upon being earnestly entreated to spare the hotel at Stony creek denot, which was represent. EXPLOSION OF A GUNBOAT, ETC.

being earnestly entreated to spare the hotel at Stony creek depot, which was represented to be the property of a widow lady (Mrs. Fitzhugh) and her children, and furnishing the sole means of their support, he yielded to the appeal, and the building was not burned. The depot, which adjoined the hotel, was likewise spared, because its conflagration would necessarily have extended to the hotel, but the latter building was pretty well riddled with shot.

Flushed with his easy success at Stony Creek, Spear pushed on, crossed Nottoway river, evidently making for the Meherrin bridge, and leaving the bridge over the Nottoway to be destroyed upon his return.

But upon reaching Jarrett's depot he found unexpectedly a considerable Confederate mand of Colonel Tabb, had reached Notto-way river bridge, and upon Spear's return they were prepared to receive him. A se-vere battle ensued, which lasted four hours. This was Sunday. By means of their ar-tillery (several pieces) the enemy managed to destroy the bridge, but they were subse-quently so terribly mauled that they had to send in a flag of truce to ask permission to bury their dead, which they were allowed to do, and then they retreated in an easter-ly direction, on the north side of the river. Their loss must have been pretty heavy. ly direction, on the north side of the river. Their loss must have been pretty heavy.—

Our loss was four killed. The number wounded we have not yet heard. Among the latter were the following officers:— Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Jones, Fiftyninth Virginia, in leg; Captain J. W. Maddux, Company K, Fifty-ninth Virginia, in breast; Lieutenant Bryant, Company K, Fifty-ninth Virginia, in breast; Lieutenant Tally, Company G, Fifty-ninth, in should r. Tally, Company G, Fifty-ninth, in shoulder. Tally, Company G, Fifty-ninth, in should r. Part of the papers and books belonging to the Sussex county clerk's office, which was burnt on Saturday, were left by the enemy at Stony creek, and thereby saved. The enemy also burnt Sussex Court House. It is now believed that Spear is on his return to Suffolk, or Norfolk to make report of his brilliant operations to headquarters. On Monday, at twelve o'clock, Spear and his command were at the farm of Major B. W Belsebes' in Sussex county, about twelve W. Belsches', in Sussex county, about twelve or fourteen miles from Stony creek. They had destroyed Major B.'s handsome dwell-ing, his mill, all his outhouses, and committed many other depredations. It is also stated that Spear's ire was particularly ex-cited against Major B. because he had heard that it was through the latter's instrument-force ready to receive him, which gave him battle, and after a short conflict he was driven back with the loss of several of his command. In the meantime the Fiftyninth and Twenty-sixth Virginia regiments, and a company of the Holcombe (South Carolina) Legion, all under the com-mand of Colonel Tabb, had reached Notto-

At Jarratt's depot, besides the depot, water tanks, wood sheds, etc., they burnt the residences of Mr. Wm. Jarratt, H. Field, and others. It is hardly probable that he will return to the railroad, as at all points that thorough-fare is too well guarded. He has doubtless gone back to Suffolk, or may endeavor to form a junction with the troops now at ality his movements had been reported.

City Point and Bermuda Hundred. A fight occurred at Swift creek, three miles from Petersburg, on Monday. It lasted with more or less vigor for some two or three hours at this point, and skirmishing. more or less sharp went on upon the north side of the creek, nearly to Fort Clifton Our troops at the close of the day occupie the position they held before the fight began, and we are glad to believe that our loss was not comparable to that of the enemy. THE CAVALRY RAID-STRENGTH OF THE ENE

MY-THEIR APPROACH TO THE CITY-FIGHTING NEAR THE FORTIFICATIONS. The cavalry raid, numbering four thou-sand men, under Generals Custar and Morrill, which was first heard from at Beaver Dam, arrived at Ashland yesterday morn-ing, where a fight occurred, the result of which is given in the following telegram

BLANK BOOK MANUFACTORY, Headquarters, Ashland, May 11, 6:30 A. M. To General Bragg: Graphit The enemy reached this point

just before us, but were promptly whipped out after a sharp fight by Colonel Munford (Fitz Lee's advance), killing and capturing quite a number.

General Gordon is in the immediate rear of the enemy. I inter sect the road the enemy is marching on, at Yellow Tavern, the head of the turnpike, six miles from Richmond. My men and horses are tired, hungry and faded, but all right. J. E. B. STUART. About nine o'clock General Stuart arrived in the enemy's rear on the Brook road, and General Gordon in their rear on the Mountain road. The two roads join at the Brook turnpike at the Yellow Tavern, about six miles from Richmond, and the intention of the enemy was to come down THE SOUTH SIDE OF THE JAMES-THE ENEMY the turnpike, cross the Brook bridge, go around to the Meadow Bridge road and thence down the Peninsula. This plan was frustrated by the burning of the Meadow bridge by our troops. This fact being discovered, the only mode of retreat was to beat General Stuart at Yellow Tavern and go up the Brook or Mountain roads, or to attack the battery at the Brook turnpike and cut their way through. The former mode was tried, and about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon they attacked General Stuart, who, with Lomax's and Wickham's brigades, repulsed them. The fight was a very hot one, lasting over an hour. Among our casualties were Lieu-tenant Colonel H. C. Pate and five Captains killed. On their route from Ashland General Gordon, who was in their rear, attacked them three times, using them up badly everv time. There had been no more fighting up to a late hour last night, nor had the enemy made another effort to break out at Yellov All the damage done by the raiders on the Central road has been repaired, and the road will probably be in running order to-

day last—a point a few miles above City Point, on the Appomattox river. The fol-lowing letter from the officer in command gives the particulars of the affair: FORT CLIFTON, May 9, 1864. I cannot refrain from writing you a line as —— goes in to tell you how God has blest us this day. My heart is gushing in gratifude for his kindness and protection, and for the signal victors have and for the signal victory he gave us over I was attacked this morning on the left by a battery of six rifled guns. Finding that my pieces on this side could not reach them, I put my men under cover, and they soon got tired of shelling us. After things had quieted down I had just got to my left, three quarters of a mile off, when a fleet of gunboats appeared in the river. engaged them for five or six hours, crippling one, which got away and during had. which got away, and driving back all the rest, save one, which I disabled. I started with twenty men to board her, when she took fire from one of my shells, was abandoned by the enemy, and burnt to the water's edge. The river here is now quite clear, but I am hard at work, &c.

AVERILL'S MOVEMENTS-FALLING BACK OF OUR FORCES.

Averill, it appears, is not in command of the forces which attacked General Jenkins at Dublin depot. He has gone with another portion of his command to Saltville, where,

t is reported, he was defeated.

The force which made the attack on General Jenkins was under the command of Gen.
Rook and was composed of twelve regiments of infantry, two of cavalry, and fifteen pieces of artillery.

Our force, now under the command of Colonel McCauseland, has fallen back to Christiansburg, in Montgomery county, eight miles west of Lynchburg.

ABRIVAL OF PRISONERS AT LYNCHBURG. Forty-four officers and eight hundred and ninety-one privates, captured by Gen.

Lee at Parker's Store on Thursday last, arrived in Lynchburg Saturday afternoon.—Among the officers are one Colonel, two Majors, fourteen Captains and twenty-seven Lieutenants, representing twenty regiments, from Maine, Wisconsin, Pennsyvania, New York, Michigan and Indiana. Two or three of them belong to the regular army. Many of these officers were captured in the fights around Richmond in 1862, and were recognized by Lieutenant Shinn, Assistant Provost Marshal in that city, who once had charge of them on Belle Isle. The officers and privates all belonged to the Fifth corps, commanded by Hancock. They are described as a decidedly genteel set of Yankees, and conducted themselves while passing through the streets with more propriety than usual.
